128 3.2.1 All accredited building code regulatory agencies/third-party service providers 129 are subject to a surveillance assessment 18 months from the initial date of 130 accreditation. 131 3.2.2 At minimum, the following information shall be reviewed during the onsite 132 surveillance assessment: the agency's/provider's internal audit and 133 management review reports/minutes; any complaints; actions resulting from 134 any Concerns noted in the previous assessment report; any major changes in 135 key personnel, facilities, or in the agency's/provider's management system. 136 3.2.3 Surveillance assessment process is similar to the initial assessment process 137 noted above; however, it may be conducted remotely at the discretion of IAS. 138 3.2.4 IAS may decide not to grant accreditation to the accredited building code 139 regulatory agency/third-party service provider for not fulfilling accreditation 140 requirements. Any applicant denied accreditation may appeal this decision as 141 per requirements noted under Section 6 of these rules. 142 3.2.5 For currently-accredited building code regulatory agencies/third-party service 143 providers, failure to respond to an IAS assessment report within 90 days will 144 result in suspension of accreditation and removal of the building code 145 regulatory agency's/third-party service provider's accreditation certificate from 146 the IAS website. 147 148 3.3 Onsite Reassessment 149 3.3.1 An onsite reassessment is required at the end of every three-year term 150 commencing from the date of initial accreditation. 151 3.3.2 In consultation with the accredited building code regulatory agency/third-party 152 service provider, an onsite assessment will be scheduled to verify compliance 153 with the accreditation requirements. 154 3.3.3 Onsite reassessment process is similar to the initial assessment process noted 155 above. 156 For currently-accredited building code regulatory agencies/third-party service 3.3.4 157 providers, failure to respond to an IAS assessment report within 90 days will 158 result in suspension of accreditation and removal of the building code 159 regulatory agency's/third-party service provider's accreditation certificate from 160 the IAS website.

161	3.3.5 The ARC-BD shall have authority to require additional onsite assessments as it
162	deems necessary.
163	3.4 Periodic Surveillance
164	Departments who have been granted reaccreditation by IAS will be subject to a
165	surveillance assessment 18 months from the date of their reaccreditation. IAS will
166	conduct the surveillance visit remotely when possible, however, IAS reserves the right
167	to schedule an onsite visit and/or follow-up visit for cause.
168
169	3.5 Extraordinary Assessments
170	3.5.1 Extraordinary onsite assessments may be conducted, including unannounced
171	assessments, to investigate formal complaints or other changes in a building
172	code regulatory agency's/third-party service provider's status that may affect
173	the ability of the agency/provider to fulfill IAS requirements for accreditation.
174	3.5.2 All costs associated with the extraordinary assessment will be the responsibility

193	4.3	Unannounced Assessments: The building code regulatory agency/third-party service
194		provider agrees to permit unannounced assessments of its office and facilities by the
195		IAS for cause, such as formal complaints, pattern of nonconformance, etc.
196
197	4.4	Usage of the IAS Name or Symbol by Accredited Building Code Regulatory
198		Agencies/Third-party Service Providers
199		4.4.1 An accredited building code regulatory agency/third-party service provider can
200		make reference to its IAS accreditation in reports, on its website, in its general
201		literature and promotional materials, under the following provisions:
202		4.4.1.1 The agency/provider may not reference its accredited status in any way that
203		indicates or implies accreditation in areas outside the actual scope of the
204		specific IAS accreditation; or that indicates or implies IAS endorsement of any
205		particular service provided by the agency/provider.
206		4.4.1.2 When the IAS name and/or the registered symbol are used on the
207		agency's/provider's letterhead or in other general literature or promotional
208		materials, it shall be accompanied by the word "ACCREDITED." The symbol
209		must also include the name of the accredited program, e.g., "Building Code
210		Regulatory Agency" or "Third-party Service Provider."
211		4.4.1.3 The IAS registered symbol may not be changed in any way, although it may
212		be enlarged or reduced.
213		4.4.2 It is the agency's/provider's responsibility to not misrepresent its accreditation
214		status in any way, and to secure IAS approval in advance whenever there is a
215		question about the agency's/provider's intended use of the IAS name and/or
216		symbol.
217
218	5.0 RE	SPONSIBILITY OF INTERNATIONAL ACCREDITATION SERVICE
219	5.1	Accreditation Documents: A certificate of accreditation and scope of accreditation
220		document shall be issued and maintained current for each accredited building code
221		regulatory agency/third-party service provider upon satisfactory completion of the 222		accreditation requirements. For each accredited agency/provider, the scope of
223		accreditation shall be posted on the IAS website. Accreditation actions will also be
224		noted on the IAS website.

- 5.2 Fee Modifications: Any modifications to the fees must be reviewed and approved by the IAS president or his/her designee.
- 229 5.3 Proprietary Data: Data in any accreditation file or application are considered 230 proprietary to the applicant. The data may be disclosed by IAS only upon the written 231 consent of the applicant or pursuant to subpoen a issued by a court or other 232 governmental agency of competent jurisdiction. Proprietary information may also be 233 disclosed to the ARC-BD in executive session. Proprietary data may also be disclosed 234 to a staff member of IAS or an authorized representative of IAS having a legitimate 235 interest therein; any duly identified representative of the building code regulatory 236 agency/third-party service provider, or like person or organization who initially prepared 237 the data, or a duly authorized representative thereof stated to be an employee or 238 principal thereof having a legitimate interest therein. Governmental regulatory bodies 239 may be granted access in the interest of public safety or preservation of property as it 240 relates to enforcement of laws/regulations upon receipt of an official written request.
- 241

5.4 Selection of Assessment Team: IAS will provide an opportunity to the applicant or accredited building code regulatory agency/third-party service provider to appeal against an assessor or assessment team assigned to assess the agency/provider. This appeal must request in writing with the reasons identified. IAS, in mutual agreement with the agency/provider, may arrange to assign a different assessor or assessment
