An IAS certification body accreditation does not imply any guarantee or warranty, express or implied and including but not limited to any warranty of merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose, of any product certified by the applicant or accredited organization, or any guarantee or warranty of any nature by IAS concerning any audits conducted by the applicant or accredited organization. Applicant or accredited organization agrees that it shall have no cause of action or claim against IAS, International Code Council (ICC), or any of their affiliates, parent, or brother or sister corporations or their Successors-in-Interest or assigns, or the officers, directors, members and employees thereof (collectively, the "Indemnitees"), arising in any manner from any denial of this application or from any accreditation given pursuant to this application, whether or not such accreditation is or is not subject to any conditions. Applicant or accredited organization agrees to hold the Indemnitees harmless, and to protect, defend and indemnify them, with respect to any claim, liability, demand, action, judgment, proceeding, costs, damages and expenses (including attorneys' fees) whether for personal injury, wrongful death, property damage, or any type of injury or damage whatsoever, arising from: (i) the application and accreditation; (ii) any certification or approval services of any nature provided by the applicant or accredited organization; (iii) the use of any service of any nature offered by the applicant or accredited organization, or the use or operation by any person of any product certified by the applicant or accredited organization, whether related to the matters set forth in the first sentence of this paragraph or otherwise; or (iv) the reference to or reliance upon, actual or asserted, any certification or approval given by the applicant or any services rendered by the applicant or accredited organization including but not limited to the results of any certification conducted by the applicant or accredited organization. If this application relates to a (branch/satellite) certification body listing or a renewal of an existing accreditation, the provisions of this paragraph shall apply from the date of the first granting of the certification body listing, whether upon application or without application by applicant or a predecessor and regardless of: (i) intervening modifications of said listing or modifications pursuant to any application for renewal; (ii) any prior change in the number assigned to the listing; (iii) any prior change in ownership rights in or rights to said listing.
